SUPERINTENDENT

Green City R-I School employed Charles A. Thompson as superintendent this school year. Mr. Thompson received his B.S. degree from Northeast Missouri State College and his masters from the University of Missouri. He has been teaching since 1937 and a superintendent of schools since 1938. Mr. Thompson taught at Ridgeway and Linn Co. R-I. He was then superintendent at Keytesville and Dixon. Mr. Thompson received one of the four awards given by the University of Missouri to outstanding teachers. He and his wife, Martha, have two children, Lonnie who is a junior at Northeast Missouri State College; and, Nancy, who works for McDonald-Douglas Corporation in St. Louis. Nancy and her husband, Gary, have a daughter, Teresa Lynn, the Thompson's only grandchild.

JUNIORS

Officers

The 1972 junior class elected the following people as officers: Linda Pfeiffer, President; Scott Gifford, Vice President; Patsy Moots, Secretary; Mary Dimmitt, Treasurer; and Chaddie Robinson and Dena Russell, Reporters. The top money-raising campaign was the magazine sales. Following the sales, a pizza party was given by the losing team for the winners. Washing busses, a jitney sale, and the junior stand at ballgames were also money-making projects.

On May 19, the juniors sponsored the prom with the theme "Spring in Holland." Sponsors for the class were Mr. Lynn Paustian and Mrs. Boyd Baxter

President Linda Pfeiffer and Mr. Lynn Paustian, sponsor, presented Jimmy Heaton with a stuffed donkey for selling the largest amount of magazines the first day of the magazine sales.

Mrs. Lois Crooks
8 Kellwood Drive
Kirksville, Missouri 63501

Dear Mrs. Crooks:

Thank you for asking me to participate in the selection of the king and queen for the Green City R-1 yearbook.

It was a difficult decision to make and my only regret is that not everyone could win. I'm sure each student in his own way was more than qualified.

My best wishes to you and the students of the Green City School District.

Sincerely,

Dick Cavett

YEARBOOK EDITORS

From the editors--

This has been a rewarding year for both of us. In putting this yearbook together we have become much closer with the activities of this school. It was hard work but we haven't regretted a moment of it. When we get older and look back through the years, we will feel proud that we have helped our fellow classmates remember through this year-book. A quote by Rod McKuen sums up our feelings; "You have to make the good times yourself, take the times and make them into big times, and save the times that are all right for the ones that aren't so good."

Donna Elam and Doris Reynolds
